Washington, October 13. - Baron Stoeckel, Russian Minister, and Mr. Bodisco, have been introduced to the President as Charge d'Affaires.

Charge d'Affaires.

A young man named Thompson, who has been employed as clerk in the inspector's division of the navy yard in this city, has been arrested on the charge of robbing the Government of goods valued at between $14,000 and $15,000. The accused has been employed since 1861.

Louisville, October 13.—The Lonisville Theatre took fire last night, a few minutes after the audience left, and was entirely destroyed. The Jewish Synagogue and other adjoining buildings were damaged.

Philadelian, October 13.—The proprietor of the Ledger has caused vigorous investigations to be made into the original of the despatch which appeared in its colamns on Taursday, relative to questions said to have been submitted by the President to the Attorney-General. All of the facts connected with the despatch, together with the original papers, the mame of the Washington informant of the Ledger correspondent and the grounds upon which the despatch was based, have been forwarded to Washington for submission to the President. the President.

Trial of Mr. Davis-Correspondence of the President and Attorney-Gen-eral Stansbury.

Washington, October 13.—The President has addressed the following letter to the Attorney-General in regard to the trial of

Jefferson Davis:

Executive Mansion,
Washington, D. C., October 6, 1866.
Sir: A special term of the Circuit Court of the United States was appointed for the first Tuesday of October, 1866, at Richmond, Virginia, for the trial of Jefferson Davis, on the charge of treason. It now appears that there will be no session of that Court at Richmond during the present month, and doubts are expressed whether the regular session, which, by law, should commence on the fourth Monday of November next, will be held. In view of this obstruction, and the consequent delay in proceeding with the trial of Jefferson Davis, under the prosecution for treason now pending in that Court, and, therebeing, so far as the President is informed, no good reason why the civil courts of the United States are not competent to exercise adequate jurisdiction within the district or circuit in which the State of Virginia is included. I deem it proper to request your opinion as to what further steps, if any, should be taken by the Excentive, with a view to a speedy public and impartial trial of the accused, according to the Constitution and laws of the United States. I am, sir, very respectfully, yours, ANDREW JOHNSON.
To Hon. Henry Stansbury, AltorneyGeneral. To Hon, Henry Stansbury, Attorney-

In response to the above, the Attorney-General, under date of the 12th instant,

In response to the above, the Attorney General, under date of the 12th instant, states:

I am clearly of opinion that there is nothing in the present condition of Virginia to prevent the fall exercise of the jurisdiction of the civil courts. The actual state of the instant of the civil courts. The actual state of the grand your several proclamations of peace and of the restoration of civil order, guarantee to the civil anthorities, Federal and State, immunity against military control or interference, it seems to me that in this particular there is no necessity for further action on the part of the Executive in the way of proclamation, especially as Congress, at the late session, required the Circuit Court of the United States to be held at Richmond, on the first Monday of May and the fourth Monday of November in each year, and authorized special or adjourned terms of that Court to be ordered by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, at such time ared on such notice as he might prescribe, with the same power and jurisdiction as at regular terms. This is an explicit recognition by Congress that the state of things in Virginia admits the holding of the United States Courts in that State. He also states that Mr. Davis remains in custody at Fortress Monroe precisely as he was held in January last, when, in answer to a resolution of Congress, you reported a communication from the Secretary of War and the Attorney General, showing that he was held to await trial in the civil courts. No action was then taken by Congress in reference to the place of custody. No demand has since been made for his transfer into civil custody. The District Attorney of the United States for the District of Virginia, where Mr. Davis stands indicted for treason, lass been notified that the prisoner would be surrendered to the United States Marshal, upon a capias, under the indictment, but the District Attorney of the United States Marshal, upon a capias, under the indictment, but the District Attorney of the United States Marshal, upon a cap been notified that the prisoner would be surrendered to the United States Marshal, upon a capias, under the indictment; but the District Attorney declines to have the capias issued, because there is no other place within the District where the prisoner could be kept, or where his personal comfort and health could be so well provided for. No application has been made, within my knowledge, by the counsel for Mr. Davis for a transfer of the prisoner to civil custody. Recently, an application was made by his counsel for his transfer from Fortress Monroe to Fort Lafayette, on the ground chiefly of sanitary consideration. A reference was promptly made to a Board of Surgeons, whose report was decidedly adverse to the change, on the score of health and personal comfort. I am unable to see what further action can be taken on the part of the Executive to bring the prisoner to trial. Mr. Davis must, for the present, remain where he is, until the Court which has jurisdiction to try him shall be ready to act, or until his custody is demanded under lawful process of the Federal Courts. The Attorney-General suggests, that to avoid any mismoderstanding on the subject, an order be issued to the commandant of Fortress Monroe, to surrender the prisoner to civil custody. suggests, that to avoid any misunderstand-ing on the subject, an order be issued to the commandant of Fortress Monroe, to surrender the prisoner to civil custody, whenever demanded by the United States Marshal, upon a process from the Federal Courts.

Marshal, upon a process from the Federal Courts.

Mr. Stansbury encloses a letter of the United States District Attorney for Virginia, who states, in answer to the question why no demand had been made upon the military authorities for the surrender of Jefferson Davis, in order that he might be tried upon the indictment found against him in the United States Circuit Court, at the term held in Norfolk, in May last, that two reasons had influenced him in not removing him from their custody. He says the one relates to the safe keeping; the other to his own personal comfort and health. I have never had any doubt but that he would be delivered to the United States Marshal of the District whenever he should have demanded him, on a capias or any other civil process.
